RE: COVID-19 Update

Electric Motor Shop & Supply, Inc. continues to provide electrical distribution, electric motor repair, and electrical services to our customers during the coronavirus (COVID-19) experience within our communities.

Effective immediately, we will be closed on Saturdays until further notice. We appreciate your understanding and apologize for any inconvenience this may cause. We continue to provide Emergency 24 Hour Service to our customers by calling our business office lines: Fresno 559-650-1153 or Visalia 559-651-8450.

We are following the guidance of the experts at the World Health Organization and the U.S. Centers for Disease Control on preventing the spread of the COVID-19 virus. Our employees are observing frequent hand washing, using hand sanitizer, and we are regularly cleaning and disinfecting our offices, vehicles and equipment. We are practicing social distancing while in the offices, wearing masks, and requiring our employees to stay home if they are ill.

Our goal is to continuously provide excellent professional service to our customers as we do our part to contain the spread of the COVID-19 virus.
